“ Dear Betty's family,
I am a friend of your Mother through the First Presbyterian Church. A card was coming but I saw this "Share" and felt I could reach each of you this way.

It's been a couple months since her passing but I still think of her as I make visits to Tiffany Square. We had scripture, prayers, and communion together many times. She was very receptive to being a part of the church in this way. She always wanted me to include each of you in our prayers; Dave, Sheryl, Bob, and John. One day when she was in her private room I asked her if she'd like to join me and a lady across the hall for communion together. She thought that would be nice and work so I wheeled her into the other's room and pushed the door shut. About 15 minutes later the door flew open and a staff member said..."there she is!!" Needless to say they were not too happy with me, and I knew I was in the wrong, but we had a little laugh over it. So our little joke became - "where's Betty?" whenever I found her outside of her room. I do miss her.

Our church family sends you all our prayers and sympathy as you grieve her passing. Her heavenly home is our rejoicing for her. May God's Love and Peace sustain you all.
