

Judy A. Camplin

January 11, 1944 - November 12, 2020

Judy A. Camplin, 76 of Grand Island, died unexpectedly Thursday, November 12, 2020. The family will be having a private celebration of life.

Memorials are suggested to Stuhr Museum or the Central Nebraska Humane Society. All Faiths Funeral Home is entrusted with the arrangements.

Judy was born on January 11, 1944 in Santa Monica, CA the daughter of Fredrick and Edna (Auld) Mahood. She graduated from Santa Monica High School and received her Bachelors of Arts degree in International Relations from the University of Southern California.

On July 2, 1966 she was united in marriage to Dr. Doug Camplin. While her husband served in the U.S. Navy, they lived in Okinawa where she taught High School English. Following the military, they moved to Grand Island in 1969.

Judy was proud of raising 3 wonderful sons and watching her grandchildren grow. She helped manage her husbands' dental clinic as well as volunteering for many organizations and served as President for the Grand Island International Visitors Council. In 1989 they received the YMCA Family of the Year honors.

Judy's passion in her spare time was writing and is a published writer for many children's publications. She was an animal lover and had many different types of pets but especially loved dogs.

Those left to cherish her memory include her husband of 54 years, Dr. Doug Camplin; their sons, Paul (Tricia) Camplin of Grand Island, Jim (Jessica) Camplin of Grand Island, Tom (Marisa) Camplin of San Francisco, grandchildren Calvin, Cara, Kaitlyn and Kinsley and granddogs Bo and Reno.

She is preceded in death by her parents.
