

Larry J. Rogers

December 16, 1933 - September 21, 2019

Larry J, Rogers, 85, of Grand Island, died Saturday, September 21, 2019 at the Veterans Affairs Medical Center in Grand Island. A visitation will be open to the public on Friday, September 27th from 2-4 pm at All Faiths Funeral Home. A private burial will be held at a later date at the Robb Cemetery in Lexington.

Larry was born on December 16, 1933 to Carrol and Esther (Gray) Rogers. Larry grew up in both the Lexington and Grand Island areas, graduating from high school in Grand Island.

In 1954, Larry entered the United States Navy, where he proudly served his country during the Korean War until 1958 when he received a medical discharge due to injuries. After his service time, Larry attended Kearney State Teaching College, owned a roofing business, was a sod farmer, sold health insurance, and also a car salesman.

Larry was married to the love of his life Judy for 57 years before her passing earlier this year. In his spare time, Larry could often be found hunting with his dogs, fishing, or just spending as much time outdoors as possible. His favorite place was at Lake McConaughy. He was a member if the GI gun club, the vets club, Eagles club and the GI Boat and Camping Club.

He's survived by a brother David and wife Ruth, of Idaho and family. Mother in law Dorothy Young, Lexington. Sisters in law Linda Goa and family of Temperance Mi., Patricia Linn of Lexington and family. His special nephew Greg Linn and wife Joyce, and good friend and neighbor Gary Keck, and those who watched over him. Nieces and nephews and other family and friends.

Preceded in death his parents, wife Judy, a sister Diane Zimmerman, father in law Roger Young. Brothers in law Ollie Goa and Paul Linn. Nieces Kelly Stoppkotte, and Marla Zimmerman.