“ LeAnne and I were best friends for many years but we kind of lost each other over the years. Recently I have been searching for her, however I was spelling LeAnne wrong and was totally shocked to find that she had passed. LeAnne had sent a sympathy card when my dad passed and she had written a note in the card remembering going to the motorcycle races as we were growing up and I never forgot that. I may have run across her but she has changed so much over the years I am not sure I would have recognized her. To her family, may God bring you love and peace during this sad time. RIP LeAnne, wish I could have found you as I had so many things I would have loved to tell you. Fly high angel.
