

Marjoury "Marge" Purdy

August 7, 1924 - August 8, 2019

Marjoury Purdy "Marge", 95, of Grand Island, died Thursday, August 8th, at Tiffany Square. Visitation will be on Sunday at All Faiths Funeral Home from 5-7 pm. Funeral Services will be on Monday, August 12th at 1pm at Messiah Lutheran Church with Fr. Robert Lewis officiating. Burial to follow in Wolbach.

Marge was born on August 7, 1924, to Henry and Amelia (Rieck) Hadan. She was raised and received her education in Primrose; graduating from Primrose High School in 1942. She attended Wayne State College for her teaching certificate.

After her marriage to Ernest Purdy, Marge met her life partner Robert Stubby, with whom she has spent the last 45 years.

Marge served as the Plant Manager for Cargill for 20 years before her retirement. She was a member of Messiah Lutheran Church, where she has been on several committees. In her spare time, she enjoyed going dancing and playing cards in her youth. She also enjoyed her coffee group with her special friends, and keeping track of her grandchildren's activities.

Those left to cherish her memory include Bob Stubby; daughters, Diane Bade (Allen Wiese) of Fremont, Shirley (Jerry) Cook of Wolbach; grandchildren James (Lorraine) Cook of Fullerton, Joe (Cathy) Cook of Bellgrade, Debi (Tracy) Filter of Fremont, Dustin Bade of Fremont; eight great grandchildren; five great, great grandchildren; and a brother, Robert Hadan of Pharr, TX.

Marge was preceded in death by her sister Mildred Schoessler.

In lieu of flowers, memorials are suggested to Messiah Lutheran Church or donor's preference.

“ It was so awesome to meet Margie at Tommy's for pie and great conversation. We learned so much about family we didn't know and met a wonderful woman, who loved coconut pie, in the process. Our heartfelt sympathy to each member of her family.
