“ *To The Family of Addisyn Grace Peterson so sorry for your loss of your precious love one. Death of anyone is sad but when it is a child it really hurts deeply, she is so precious. I hope the little time you had with her be remembered for a long time. May you be comfort from what the bible says about when we loss a love one in death at 2Corinthians 1:3,4 where Our Creator Jehovah God has given His Son Jesus Christ the power to bring back our love ones again. “ May God continue to bless you with comfort, peace and understanding in His ways through your family and friends around you.

Personally I find comfort in looking to the heavens and picturing a single cloud that connects you to your loved one and then smile while saying a prayer or recalling a special time when they were near. Like that cloud it too will move on out of our sight, but return again in our thoughts and hearts.

“ I work at the front desk at TCCC and saw you getting closer and closer to being induced. She was such a cute little girl. I have been praying for comfort, strength and continued faith in God at this incredibly difficult time. Take care of yourselves and your other daughters. Hug each other a lot. Addisyn will live in your hearts forever.
