A.J. was born on September 27, 1922 on a farm near Dwight, daughter of Joseph and Mary (Hraban) Kadavy.

Following her education, she was united in marriage to Emil Liska. After Emil's passing she married Harold Johnson in 1953.

A.J. made her home in Grand Island where she was employed for over 35 years at Fonner Park as a teller for the horse races.

She was a member of St. Leo's Catholic Church. A.J. so loved her cottage where each spring she fed her goslings and baby ducks. She shared her love of nature and her perfect sunsets with all of her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. She instilled in all that the most important things in life were “Family and Health.”

Memorials are suggested to St. Jude’s Children’s Hospital.

“ Was there ever a moment when she wasn't happy to see us? Treated us like family and was fun to play Scrabble with! It will be so hard to not see her at the Johnson's and Olderbak's celebrations. She was so proud of all of you and knew how to enjoy each and every one of you. She will be missed.
