Alan was born on February 7, 1958 in Yankton, SD, son of Arlo and Arthella (Ohm) Arens.

Alan is survived by his children, Brandy Mancinas and Mike (Faithe Nichols) Arens both of Grand Island; mother Arthella Arens of Hartington; sister, Angela Arens of Hartington; mother of his children, Karen Arens of Grand Island; grandchildren, Mya Arens, Brian Arens, Sofia Alvarez, Daniel Mancinas, Leticia Mancinas, Cesar Mancinas and Javier Perez; along with numerous extended family and friends.

He was preceded in death by his father, and brother, Austin Arens.

Alan was raised on the family farm near Hartington where he graduated in 1976. Continuation his education, Alan attended Northeast Tech following high school. He was soon employed by Southern Power where he continued as a lineman until retiring due to his health.

In his younger years, Alan enjoyed hunting, fishing, and camping trips with his children. Alan loved to be outdoors, spending time with his beloved animals and tinkering on small engines. He was an avid reader and was especially fond of geology books. He looked forward to starting new hobbies and cherished the time he spent with his grandchildren. Memorials are suggested to the family.
