

Allen L. Splichal

December 1, 1951 - January 9, 2019

Allen L. Splichal, 67, of Grand Island formerly of Scottsbluff, passed away from Alzheimer's disease on Wednesday, January 9, 2019 at Country House Residence in Grand Island.

To honor his wishes cremation was chosen, there will be no services at this time.

All Faiths Funeral Home of Grand Island is entrusted with arrangements.

Allen was born on December 1, 1951 at Scottsbluff, son of Calvin and Betty (Helzer) Splichal Sr.

Allen was raised and received his education in Scottsbluff where he graduated in 1970. He continued his education and graduated with an AA degree from Nebraska Western Community College.

On January 22, 1977, he was united in marriage to the love of his life and best friend, Cheri Hoff. The couple made their home at Lake Minatare before moving to Scottsbluff.

Allen was employed by Budweiser for 25 years and then drove truck for a short time. He then began working for Scotts Bluff County, first on the bridge maintenance department and then driving truck. Due to ill health, Allen was forced to retire early.

Allen was a former member of the Elks Lodge, Assistant Scout leader, assistant coach for his son's 23 Club Baseball and flag football teams. He enjoyed hunting and was an avid fisherman. Allen loved to spend summertime on the lake with his family at the "summer home." Allen cherished all the memories and time he spent with his kids and was excited about spending time with his grandkids.

Allen is survived by his wife of 42 years, Cheri; children, Allison (Kevin) Uglow of Grand Island and Chase (Chelsie) Splichal of Killdeer, ND; grandkids, Kashton Uglow and Thaddia Splichal; brother, Calvin (Faye) Splichal Jr. of Scottsbluff; along with numerous extended family and friends.

Allen was preceded in death by his parents.

To continue to honor Allen's memory for his beloved grandchildren, memorials are suggested to their future education.
