“ I have fond memories of Andrea from working with her at Skagway so many years ago. Her husband Jim and her kids were the loves of her life, and she was always willing to listen, give sound advice and friendship to all who needed it. I will always remember her fondly.

“ Andrea (and the entire family) came into our lives at a time when I was a struggling single mom of three. She took care of my children so I could work crazy retail hours. To this day they recall their time with her as a wonderful part of their childhood. She will forever in our hearts. Much love and many prayers for all of you.

“ The fondest memory is helping Andrea with the potlucks at church but most of all the Christmas breakfast. We always appreciated her hugs and motherly advice.
