Angel was born July 22, 1937, in Lubbock, Texas, the son of Angel D. and Frances (Ledesma) Figueroa. On October 11, 1955, Angel entered the U.S. Navy, serving during the Vietnam War. He was honorably discharged September 10, 1959. Angel reenlisted in the service and was honorably discharged again on January 10, 1966. He was proud to have served on several aircraft carriers, including The USS Yorktown; and was serving on a ship during the Cuban Missile Crises Blockade in 1962.

Over his lifetime he had several employments including Dicks Motors, Speltz-Schultz Mfg., the Cornhusker Army Ammunition Plant and lastly, he was a plant operator at the Grand Island Power Plant, Burdick Station.

Angel was an avid Harley-Davidson motorcycle fan; belonging to a motorcycle club at one time. This may have been in part due to his love of everything Elvis.

The family extends their sincere appreciation to the staff of Matelyn Retirement Community and also to Dave and Pat Nuncio, for their support and their devotion to Angel the last few years.

Those who cherish his memory include his brother, Dan (Esther) Figueroa of San Antonio, TX; children, Steve McCown of Wylie, TX, Gary McCown of Breckenridge, CO, Shelley Hoyt of Eureka, KS, Kari Uecker of Colorado and Marc Godeker of St. Louis, MO; thirteen grandchildren; and nieces and nephews, including Tara Figueroa and Lydia Belmudez-Casarez.

He was preceded in death by his parents; son, Anthony McCown, sister, Frances Belmudez and grandmother, Refugia Ledesma.
