“ It's been a year and two days and it still hurts. I miss the way she laughed and her confidence. I miss her fascination with clocks and her confidence. I miss her love. I miss her.

“ Ann laughed often and well. She loved from the heart. She cherished her family - especially her grandchildren. Our paths first crossed in college at Peru State. Life took us different directions, but we were able to come together again the past several years. Our occasional lunches were a joy - the last just six weeks ago or so. My thoughts are with the family and I have lost a little because I dear friend is gone. Peace be with you.

“ We were deeply saddened to learn of Ann's passing. We always enjoyed our time together whether in Omaha or Chicago. We always had a good time.

One of my fondest memories was getting a personal tour of the Boys Town Campus and Museum in Omaha by Ann. She know all of the history and stories about its growth and its role to the community of Omaha.

We will miss our good friend.
