“ Sending thoughts and prayers to all of you. You do not know me, but would love to share the blessing of Art way back in the 60's. I was a waitress at Conoco Cafe when Art, Don, Bing and a few others used to come in for coffee. What a treasured memory. Those guys were funny, caring and total fun to visit with. Those were the good old days. Diana (Thomas) McKoski

“ Voncell, DeeDee, & Jennifer, or thoughts and prayers are with you. Uncle Art was truly one of a kind. My dad always said Art was born a 100 years too late the way he enjoyed black powder hunting, fishing and camping many times in solitude. He is one of the original extreme outdoors man.

I remember as a kid riding on the back of his motorcycle with no helmet. As an adult my fondest memory of Uncle Art was dancing with him at his brother's 40th wedding anniversary party.

Uncle Art is the middle brother of my dad Bob, who is the oldest, and my Uncle Dennis who is the youngest brother. Their dad was KIA in WWII, Okinawa Japan. My grandmother raised her 3 boys as a single parent. They were very rough and tumble boys and grandma would threaten to send them to Boys Town. Father Flanigan's motto for Boys Town is "there's no such thing as a bad boy." My dad's response was "He doesn't know the Osterman boys!"

Love & hugs from the Omaha Ostermans
