The couple farmed south of Grand Island, eventually moving nearer to Chapman for several years, before returning to Grand Island in 1961. Other than being a wonderful wife and mother, Audrey was employed at Fonner Park, Dreisbach's and Gates

Elementary School. She was a member of Messiah Lutheran Church. Her enjoyments included playing cards at the Platt-Duetsche; shopping with her best friend, Shirley Peard and the occasional trip to a casino. Above all, Audrey enjoyed her beloved grandchildren. “ So sorry to hear of Audrey's passing and missing her service. I was out of town at the time and didn't get caught up on news very well or quickly. I so enjoyed reconnecting with Audrey the past few years and talking about past family reunions and different relations we would run into. She was truly delightful and so sweet. My deepest sympathy to all of you. Jackie (Schwieger) Beltzer
