

Barbara Kay Konsella

May 21, 1945 - January 31, 2015

Barbara Kay Konsella, 69, of Grand Island died Saturday, January 31, 2015 at the Grand Island Veterans Home.

Memorial service will be held at 1:00 p.m. Monday at the Veterans' Home in All Faiths Chapel. Chaplain William Noer will officiate. Inurnment will follow in Cedarview Cemetery in Doniphan.

There will be a gathering of family and friends from 12:00 until service time.

Barbara was born May 21, 1945, in Kearney to William and Thelma (Zimmerman) Loeffelholz.

Survivors include three daughters, Roberta Pettinger of Lincoln, Kerry Heider (David Willard) of Grand Island and Crystal Lewis of Omaha; brother, Laverne (Kathie) Loeffelholz of Missouri; seven grandchildren, Brandon, Miranda, Kimberly, LaKiesha, Jamin, Felicia and Meagan; and two great-grandchildren, Trevor and Jordyn.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Butch, in 1985; parents; brother, Robert; and sisters, Mary and Diane.

Barbara grew up and attended school in Kearney, and there she was united in marriage to Hugh "Butch" Konsella. The couple lived in several places, including Germany, while Butch was in the United States Army, eventually making their home and raising their family in the Kearney and Doniphan areas.

Barbara enjoyments included country music, board games, bingo and cards and she always had a Seek-a-Word book nearby.

Memorials are suggested to the VFW or to the family.
