

Beulah (Loibl) Nunnenkamp

August 29, 1927 - December 22, 2019

Beulah (Loibl) Nunnenkamp, 92, of Grand Island passed away on Sunday, December 22, 2019.

Service and celebration of Beulah's life will be 11:00 a.m. Friday, January 17th, at GI Free Church of Grand Island.

Beulah was born August 29, 1927 in Cozad to John and Neva (Halverstadt) Loibl. She lived on various farms until her parents moved to Greeley, CO. She met her husband Tom while visiting a cousin in North Platte. They were married in Phillipsburg, KS. Beulah took care of her mother until her death and then moved to Grand Island.

Beulah worked for JC Penney for ten years and then for Circle C South Motor Inn for 21 years, retiring at the age of 68.

She truly loved working in her yard. She said she felt closer to God while pulling weeds and she knew Jesus hated weeds also. Beulah also enjoyed genealogy, gardening, cooking and crocheting.

Beulah was a member of the Free Evangelical Church and White Cross. She was a faithful attendee of Barb Miller's bible study class for many years and bonded deeply with many special friends from that study.

Beulah is survived by she and Tom's one daughter, Debra VanBuskirk; a daughter by heart, Billie Henderson; three grandchildren, Brandon (Melissa) VanBuskirk, Jace (Jeffrey) Bonsall and Benjamin VanBuskirk; seven great-granddaughters, Ellee and Emma VanBuskirk, and Isla and Neve Bonsall, and Madison, Kennedie and Reagen VanBuskirk; and a great great-grandson,

Brooks Douglas VanBuskirk.

She is also survived by brother, Marc (Sue) Loibl; sister, Barbara (Ivan) Skinner; and several nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Tom in 1990; parents; son-in-law, Douglas VanBuskirk; two brothers and sisters-in-law, Glenn (Ginger) Loibl and Bobby (Betty) Loibl.

Memorials are suggested to GI Free Church of Grand Island.
