“ A lot of people don't know how we met, it was October of 1981 and at his sister Myrtle's place while having a Tupperware Party. We have been together ever since. He was my soul mate, my everything through the ups and downs. I Love You my Santa Clause.

“ My dad was a good man. Growing up I can remember him always helping family and friends no matter what. He would give the shirt off his back. There's so many memories. Like when we had our car wreck my dad came and stayed with us for a few days to make sure we were all okay. Back pain, broken neck, stiff muscles and all my dad put us 1st. He slept with James up in his room and on the couch, which I know he wasn't super comfortable but that just shows what kind of man my dad was. It was nothing to put the needs of his family before his own. My dad was my best friend. Up until this past year I would pick my dad up every day and hang out before I had to work. Drink coffee talk politics or sports. I'm going to miss my dad so much. I wasn't ready for him to go but I knew it was coming at the same time. I just know he's with his mom and dad and brothers and sisters and we now have the best guardian angel we could ever hope for 🙏🙏🙏
