Jeannie was born on March 25, 1947 near Loup City, daughter of Glenn and Norma (Mohr) Staab.

She grew up on farms in Custer County until high school when her family moved into Broken Bow. After graduation she completed one year of education at Chadron State College before marrying her high school sweetheart Garry Morgan. They were blessed with a daughter, Tammie. She continued her education at Grand Island School of Business. In 1971, they moved to Colorado. After the marriage ended, Jeannie and Tammie moved back to Broken Bow.

On November 20, 1976 she married Gaylord Jensen and they were blessed with a daughter, JoDee. They made their home in Grand Island and in 1984, they moved to St. Libory.

Jeannie was the office manager for ophthalmologist, Dr. Chase and once he retired, Dr. Harkins. Jeannie was a member at First Faith United Methodist Church in Grand Island and attended Kearney First United Methodist Church recently. She was a founding member of Central Nebraska Antique Tractor and Equipment Club. She enjoyed attending the tractor shows and tractor drives with Gaylord.

She was a skilled seamstress and enjoyed preserving memories in many scrapbooks. Jeannie was also a volunteer at the Nebraska State Fair in Grand Island and a 4-H leader. She loved to care for her flowerbeds and her pets Taz and Sadie.

She is survived by her daughters, Tammie (Tony) Berck of Kearney and JoDee (Todd) Hubbard of Elm Creek; grandchildren, Logan (Kelsie Brown), Kaitlin and Haylee; brothers, Eldon (Ann) Staab of Castle Rock, CO and Chuck (Lana) Staab of Grand Island; along with numerous nieces, nephews and extended family and friends.

Jeannie was preceded in death by her parents, in-laws Jens and Pearl Jensen, and husband, Gaylord in 2018.
