“ God saw you getting tired and a cure was not to be so he put his arms around you and whispered come to me! I remember the day that Aunt Gwen ask me to ride along with her to pick Carlos up in Utah I was probably only 14 and when I saw you I thought I had the baddest cousin around I remember how you used to be so protective and when you thought I was doing something that you didn't want me to do you be chasing me around on your bike and I'd be running from you I love you Carlos

“ I have been wondering how to tell you goodbye. And it's not easy doing that. I don't know how I'm going to go to Hastings and not finding you there anymore. You left us to early. You was a very private person, and only let a few people get to know you. I'm glad I was able to have you in my life. We shared ALOT over the years. And now all I have are memories I will cherish always. And wil have you in my heart forever. Rest in peace, now you are finally at rest. Love and miss you. Karen
