“ *With a heavy heart I say farewell to the woman who gave me my wife, children and grandchildren, Carole will always be in my heart, and when the cold Canadian winds blow I will hear her blame them for the cold Nebraska winters, and for the entire family we are extremely fortunate to have had her there for us all. “ My sincerest condolences to my cousins and their families. I have been flooded with wonderful memories of my mother's friendship with her sister. My own memories of my Aunt Carole still make me smile. It is comforting to know that so many of her family were with her at the end. While I won't be able to be with you on Monday, you will be in my thoughts.

*Blessings to all,
Julia Allen*
