

Carolyn Lacey

October 5, 1940 - December 17, 2014

Carolyn (Saint) Lacey, 74, of Grand Island died on Wednesday, December 17, 2014 in Lincoln.

To honor Carolyn's wishes cremation will take place, a memorial service will be held at 10:00 a.m. on Monday December 22, at All Faiths Funeral Home. Dan Naranjo will officiate. Private family burial will be in the Kenesaw Cemetery.

Those left to cherish her memory are her son, Bradley Lacey of Beaver Crossing; daughter, Diane (Brent) Parker of Kenesaw; sister, Kathi Kinnaman of Omaha; three grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

She is preceded in death by her parents, infant brother, and brother –in-law, Dave Kinnaman .

Carolyn was born on October 5, 1940 in Wichita, KS to Clarence and Agnes (Bash) Saint.

She was raised on the family farm near Wichita, KS. After graduating from Wichita North High School she attended Wichita Business College.

Carolyn owned PollyWog Pond, a child clothing store, as well as a craft store, Kountry Kottage. In recent years she worked in customer service at Best Buy and Master Stylist in Grand Island.

She enjoyed crafts, gardening, reading, but most important to Carolyn were her family members.

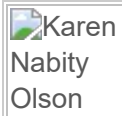

Memorials are suggested to family.

“ Carolyn was such a great creator of many fabric creations. I especially loved her snowmen and other things she sold through my store many years ago. Every time we spoke, whether at Best Buy or elsewhere, she always had a smile and kind words. She will be greatly missed.
