“ Being a friend of Doug Reher, I only saw Cathy when she visited California, usually at holiday times. I thoroughly enjoyed those visits and loved her easy-going and generous attitude to life. I'll always remember her love of shopping and her love of sweets, especially chocolate. She was a fine sewer and quilter; I was always amazed at her quilts, always. Not only will I miss her, but I know that her sons will, as well as all who knew her.

May she have rest in that place where there is no pain or grief, but life eternal.
