Charlene Joy Hauman, 90, of Omaha, formerly of Grand Island, passed away on Sunday, November 5, 2023, surrounded by her beloved family.

Service and celebration of Charlene's life will be held at 11:00 a.m. Monday at All Faiths Funeral Home. Daniel Naranjo will be the officiant. Burial will follow at Grand Island City Cemetery.

There is a visitation from 10:00 a.m. until the time of the service.

Charlene was born February 2, 1933, at Cotesfield, NE, the daughter of Lester and Edna (Lint) Gress. She graduated from Howard County District in May of 1951.

In 1952, she relocated to Grand Island and lived there most of her life. On January 13, 1975, she married Richard Hauman.

For the majority of her life, Charlene had in-home daycare taking care of multiple generations of children. Caring and loving, Charlene just wanted to help others, she never met a stranger, and her home was always open to those in need. Other employment included Sunset Motel and Labor Temple. She was a wonderful volunteer, helping with school functions for her children and grandchildren who were the joy of her life, making and donating cakes for multiple cake walks, and was a member of Salvation Army Woman Auxiliary. Her caring nature extended to the dogs in her life. She always had a dog or two to care for.

Charlene enjoyed being surrounded by her family and friends, especially during the holidays, playing cards and bingo, gambling trips with friends, and camping. Her generous heart of gold will be missed by all.

Those who cherish her memory include her daughter and son-in-law, Susan and Ken Jolkowski of Omaha; son-in-law, Alan McComb of Grand Island; stepdaughter, Brenda Hauman-Saldecki of Grand Island; 16 grandchildren and 39 beloved great-grandchildren.

She was preceded by her husband Richard Hauman; daughters, Betty McComb and Cara Russell; parents; granddaughters, Tannas Jolkowski and Shayla Pier; son-in-law, Keven Russell; and her beloved dogs, Squeaky and Yoyo.

Memorials are suggested to the Salvation Army of Grand Island.
