On January 4, 1957 she was united in marriage to Francis P. Berney.

Chuckie was a member of the Platt Duetsche, and enjoyed playing Bingo with her dear friend Marilyn Gilroy.

Following her retirement, Chuckie volunteered at Newell Grade School for her granddaughter Asia's class. Numerous classes of Kindergarteners and 1st Graders fondly knew her as Grandma Chuckie as she read to them and helped them learn their sight words.

Birthdays and Christmas' were special for Chuckie's family; Chuckie always baked a favorite dessert for everyone's birthday. Christmas time was filled with her homemade cookies, candies and pecan pie. She passed on her love of baking to her great-granddaughter, teaching her how to make noodles and other treats.

An avid reader Chuckie loved to share her books with family and friends. Murder mysteries were her favorite and she was always excited to discuss the plot of the book even before others had read it. Chuckie had an endearing spirit and she was there to guide and care for whomever needed it. Her beloved grandchildren and great-grandchildren knew they could always count on Grandma Chuckie.

Memorials are suggested to the family.
