“ Dear Cheryl, Wow, I just hardly could believe this. Seems like only yesterday when we last talked. I know you were ready to leave. Enough already I am sure. I will never forget how much laughter we shared. How we looked forward to those Friday night suppers.. Save a spot for me up there, I will be looking for you. Lynda McComb

“ my name is pat arellano, cheryl and I was very good friends at one time unfortunately, I moved to colorado and lost contact with her, she was a wonderful person and very beautiful woman. we had so much fun together. She loved to play pool and was very good at it, of course that was in our younger years, she shall be missed and may she rest in peace. My condolences to the family.
