“ Cindy touched so many lives including mine more than once over the years. I recall how Cindy was there for her family besides others. I remember spending special time alone with Cindy talking, laughing and giving each other a hug one summer evening. We were looking at meaningful items in her curio cabinet one day. How we spoke together of the Lord and the love we have for our family & friends. Cindy had such a smile that came from her heart that would brighten any persons day. What a great cook Cindy was. To Cindy's family and friends. I realize how much you love and miss her. I miss her also. You have my sincere sympathy and are kept in my prayers. Jamie Thein

“ My Aunt Cindy was a great person. I will always remember her as a big part of my childhood. My mom and dad spent a lot of time at her place growing up in Doniphan and fishing on the weekends. Holidays without her macaroni salad and banana cream pudding will not be the same. You will missed!! Thanks for the memories.

“ So sad to hear of your loved ones passing. I worked with Cindy in the early 80's in Hastings at A-One. She was an awesome person! Excellent worker! May she rest in peace and hope all of you know she is with God now.
