April 22, 1934 - February 9, 2017

Clemence "Clem" P. Wiczorek, 82, of Grand Island passed away on Thursday, February 9, 2017 at the Veteran's Affairs Hospital.

Visitation will be on Friday from 5 to 7p.m. at Blessed Sacrament Catholic Church, with the rosary at 7.

Mass of Christian Burial will be at 10:30 a.m. on Saturday, February 11, at Blessed Sacrament Catholic Church. Fr. Mike McDermott will officiate. Burial will follow at Westlawn Memorial Park Cemetery with military honors rendered by the Veteran's Honor Guard and U.S. Army Honor Guard.

All Faiths Funeral is serving the family.

Clem was born on April 22, 1934 in Rockville, NE, son of Michael and Mary (Hansen) Wiczorek.

Clem grew up near Bolus and later on, Grand Island. He graduated from Grand Island High School and continued his education at the Trade School in Milford.

In 1958, Clem was drafted into the U.S. Army; he was stationed in Ft. Lewis, WA, until he received his honorable discharge on November 30, 1963.

He was united in marriage with Barbara Dukat on January 3, 1959. This union was blessed with six children. The family made their home in Grand Island, where Clem was employed as a diesel mechanic until he opened his own repair shop where he would service and repair drywall tools.

Clem not only could he fix any tools that were brought to his shop, he also had a green thumb. During the spring and summer, Clem would be found in his expansive garden growing large watermelons, pumpkins, and numerous ears of sweet corn. He took pride not only in his garden but also the upkeep of his lawn. He also enjoyed watching and sharing his harvest with the small animals that would call his yard home. Clem adored his family, and was always there for his grandchildren's events. With his witty sense of humor he enjoyed teasing the grandchildren as well as the rest of his family and friends too. He was devoted to his faith and was a parishioner of Resurrection Catholic Church. He enjoyed Husker sports and polka dancing at the Eagles Club.

He is survived by his wife, Barbara of Grand Island; children, Joan (Steve) Ruskamp, Dodge NE; David (Veronica) Wieczorek, Grand Island, NE; Linda (Chuck) Elley, Scottsbluff NE; Paul (Ann) Wieczorek, San Jose CA; Sharon McCoy, Gretna NE; Sandra Wieczorek, Key West, FL; sisters, Stella (William) Schleicher, St. Libory NE; Helen (Honore) Lartigue, Memphis TN; 17 grandchildren; five great-grandchildren; along with numerous extended family and friends.

Clem was preceded in death by his parents, grandson, Aaron Wieczorek; brother and sisters, Verna Cuckler; Joseph Wieczorek, Leo Wieczorek, Melvin Wieczorek.

Memorials are suggested to Resurrection Catholic Church.

“ I can't even start to let you all know how sad we are for all of you. Uncle Clemence was a very loving and sensitive man. My mother loved him so much and so have we as her children. Aunt Barbara and all of the children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Truly believe that he is finally with his Mother, Father, Brothers and his sister Verna. God is looking after all of them now. God bless, Susan and Larry Seals

“ Dear Emily and extended family,

Sometimes there are no words, only love. Our thoughts and heartfelt prayers are with you and your family as you celebrate the life of your Grandpa, Clem. His presence in your lives was a gift to all of you, as you were to him. You have prayed for him, most especially during his final days on earth, and now he prays for all of you.

May God bless all of you,
