

Clifford F. Saylor

September 30, 1942 - July 25, 2016

Cliff F. Saylor 73 of Grand Island died on Monday, July 25, 2016 at Wedgewood Care Center.

Visitation will be held from 5 to 7 p.m. on Thursday at All Faiths Funeral Home.

Services will be held at 10 a.m. at All Faiths Funeral Home on Friday. Dan Naranjo will officiate.

Burial will be at 1:00 p.m. at Broken Bow Cemetery.

Cliff was born on September 30, 1942 in Rulo, Ne. He was adopted by Fred and Ida Saylor.

He was raised and received his education in Broken Bow, graduating with the class of 1960. In 1963 he made the move to Grand Island with his family, later he lived in Colorado before returning to Grand Island.

For many years Cliff was employed by the local lumber yard, he also worked for Lee's Radio, U.P.R.R., and the Grand Island Ordinance Plant, until his health declined.

Cliff was a member of the NRA and the Elks Club. He enjoyed classic country music, fishing with his family, and passing his knowledge of cars to his children. Cliff was a great cook; his family always had a home cooked meal to look forward to. Some of his specialty dishes included pie and taco Tuesdays. Cliff adored animals, feathered or four-legged.

Those left to cherish his memory include his children, Shelia O'Borny of Greeley, Co, Julie Moore of Windsor, CO, Clifton (Danelle) Saylor of Doniphan, Tina (Joseph) Graff of Alda, Billy (Cassie) Saylor of Grand Island, Trisha Saylor (Chad Allan) of Grand Island; 19 grandchildren, two great-grandchildren; along with numerous extended family and friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents, children, Sherry Saylor, Jeffrey Saylor and Michael Saylor.

Memorials are designated to the family.
