“ I always remember Colanne from working with her at Tiffany square. The residents were treated with love and respect from her. One day after I left work there, I was sitting in the drive through at DQ. I noticed it was her in front of me so I hollered out to her as we had our windows down. she looked back, waved, and smiled. When I got up to the window, the cashier said Colanne had paid for my ice cream ❤️❤️ Always a loving lady, she's greatly missed. Hugs, and love to all her family.
