

Cynthia "Cindy" H. Champion

August 18, 1950 - August 26, 2024

Cynthia "Cindy" Helen Champion was born to William and Helen (Farnsworth) Champion on August 18, 1950, in Pittsburgh, PA. The seventh of eight children, Cindy was the youngest daughter. Though Cindy never married, her life was rich with meaningful relationships and a deep commitment to family. Throughout her life, Cindy devoted herself selflessly to caring for her parents and sisters. Even as the years passed and the family changed, her commitment to her loved ones never wavered. Her dedication extended to her nieces, nephews, great-nieces, and great-nephews who experienced her love, care, and joyful spirit.

She cared for her father until his death and then lived with her sisters Dot and Joan for many years, living next door to her sister, Donna, and her family. They were truly the Golden Girls. A brother also relocated to the area and lived close by. Family connection was important to them all. As her sisters' health struggles began, Cindy was always there to help. She later moved to Arkansas to be near her nephew, Chuck (and Sheri) Hopkins, and his family. Cindy's health began to decline and at the request of her nieces Lori (Krause-Ruiz) Arriola and Barbi (Krause-Ruiz) Marsh and great-niece Sharena (Arriola) Anson and families, she moved to Nebraska to let them finally care for her. While she may not have had children of her own, Cindy touched the lives of many and will be greatly missed.
