Dan was born June 23, 1951, at Ainsworth, NE, the son of Clifford and Beverly (Conrad) Edwards. His family moved many times during his childhood due to his father's job in dam construction. He made his final move to Grand Island around 1975.

“ I would help Dan call his family and talk to him on the phone and help them to understand what he was talking about when they got ready to hang up they would say I love you Dan and sometimes I had to do a little coaxing to get him to say that I love you too at the time that really was memorable was the morning that Pastor Scott came over and say good morning to Dad at church they shook hands the Baptist got said I love you Dad it without hesitation and said I love you too definitely a connection Thor
