

Dave Lee Willman

February 4, 1942 - September 5, 2023

Dave Willman passed away at Taylor House in Des Moines, Iowa on September 5, 2023 at the age of 81. Dave was born in Grand Island, Nebraska on February 4, 1942 to David and Deloris (O'Neill) Willman. Dave received his education in Grand Island and was a 1960 graduate of Grand Island Senior High, after graduation he attended and graduated from Drake University in Des Moines with a degree in accounting in 1966. Dave voluntarily enlisted in the Marines and earned his Honorable Discharge on August 23, 1971, he then returned to Des Moines to work at Armstrong Tire and Rubber in their Accounting department. He secured his CPA license and opened his own business assisting individuals and businesses with their tax and investment needs.

He was a true sports lover and followed sports of all kinds, especially college football, going to many in-person games as well as watching on TV. His time in the Marines set the stage for his disciplinary attitude of a strict diet and regularly working out.

Dave was preceded in death by his parents and brother Leonard Willman of Omaha. Survivors include niece Pam (Chris) Alfieri, nephews David (Andrea) Willman, Kim (Lisa) Willman, sister-in-law Henrietta Willman of Omaha, and great nieces and nephew. Private burial services with military honors will be held in Grand Island on Thursday, September 28, 2023. All Faiths Funeral Home of Grand Island is assisting the family. Memorials are suggested to a veterans' facility of the donor's choice in Dave's name.
