“ Dave, so many memories we have. In our early years we always looked to you for direction and advice, you never disappointed us. Trips with our family, especially our camping trip to Harlan, our first concert with you to see The Beach Boys, our first Husker football game and we must never forget our Christmas family get togethers. We will be there for Brenda, Stephanie, Shawna, Stacey and families. We pray 🙏 you are at peace and know that we love you ❤️ so much. Even though you are our Brother-in-law, you will always be a "brother" to us and we will watch over you as 'My Brother's Keeper".

Love you David,
Mike and Colleen

“ David was a friend of the Barnes family! From being baby sitted by Lorraine, Marj, and Gale, a classmate to Carol Ann, a close friend to Renny, and a tormentor to me (Warren) 😊 I believe that David was one of the original to give me the nickname of my brother's pet bird 🐦. Always there to give me a friendly hello when I returned home to visit Mom and Dad, he will be missed.

“ Ahh Big Dave! You will be missed. I still remember the time you got me in trouble for going to Randy's party, which you didn't know you were getting me in trouble for!

Or the time I forgot my jeans at my parent's house and I lived in Omaha so you brought them to me. I met you at the hotel you were staying at. You were sitting with some of your coworkers and I said across the room did you bring my pants? And you embarrassingly said Erin don't be so loud! That doesn't sound very good!
