“ David & I were stationed together when he was in the Army & I was an AF dependent. He had the best sense of humor & was the light of our little gang that hung together. He was so sweet & always watched over me. Dave marched to the beat of a different drummer & did his own thing--sometimes to his detriment, but always with a funny story to back up his actions. We stayed in contact after we both returned from that post/base & I always thought we would stay in touch. Life has a way of going on & we lost touch, although I would think of him often. A random search led me to his obituary & I am so sorry to read of his passing. I hope his life was happy & I send condolences to his family. Please remember that David was one-of-a-kind & was a special friend to many.
