David was born on April 23, 1993 in Omaha. He was raised around Grand Island where he attended school.

David's laugh and kindheartedness was a blessing to all of his friends and family. He was passionate about all music. David loved rap most of all and would free style rap with his friends and write his own lyrics. David lived one day at a time and was a free spirit. He explored Nebraska, Iowa, North Dakota, Colorado, New York and finally Arizona. David never had any interest in driving, because the damage it would impact the environment, often times he would take the bus or even hitchhiking. David plans were to return to Fargo, North Dakota and one day, Meyuca in El Estado de Mexico. David was a loved son, brother, nephew and friend.

He is survived by his father, David Pedroza Sr.; brother, Alex Pedroza; sisters, Karina Pedroza and Jesenia Pedroza; along with numerous extended family and friends.
