

David "Dave" Springer

March 24, 1941 - August 12, 2023

David "Dave" Erwin Springer, 82, of Grand Island, passed away Saturday, August 12, 2023.

A memorial service and celebration of Dave's life will be held at All Faiths Funeral Home on Saturday, October 14th, at 10:00 a.m. with Daniel Naranjo officiating.

Burial of ashes will be at New Richmond, Wisconsin.

Dave was born March 24, 1941, in Amery, Wisconsin, the son of Henry and Florence (Bock) Springer. He grew up in Wisconsin and graduated from New Richmond High School in 1958. Dave graduated from the University of Wisconsin and then completed his Master's degree in Denver, Colorado. He enlisted in the United States Army, the Army Reserves, and the National Guard. Dave was honorably discharged from the Army in 1970.

Following his discharge, Dave worked in various places over the years including Honeywell (Mexico), Chief Industries, Snyder Industries, Lockwood, and York Manufacturing. He returned to Grand Island and retired from his job as City Finance Director.

Dave was a history buff, loved to read, and traveled extensively. Some of his favorite pastimes included watching football and volleyball. He was an avid woodworker, carving and painting ducks, dragons, and Kachina dolls. He enjoyed working outside and cultivated numerous fruit trees and vegetables in his garden.

His memory will be cherished by his family, Lila Studnicka and her two daughters and their families: Stephanie (Chris) Corder and their children, Mackenzie and Madelyn; and Allison (Evan) Keresi and their son, Caden; and several dear friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents, his brother Frank, and his sister-in-law Bernice.

Memorials are suggested to New Richmond High School (Wisconsin) or St. Jude Children's Research Hospital.
