All Faiths Funeral Home is entrusted with arrangements.

On February 24, 1938 Dee was born to parents, Pete and Gulabelle (Meyer) Weber in Atkinson.

Dee grew up in the Valentine area where she met Max D. Cornish. They were united in marriage on May 18, 1958 in Stewart and made their home in Valentine on the family farm. As her health declined, she made her home in St. Paul to be near her daughters.

Dee was a sweet and loving mother to their three daughters. She was a hard-working ranch hand and devoted wife to her husband, Max. She embraced the potential that the ground offered every spring, tending to her flower gardens. Dee enjoyed the bright colors, especially red. Her loving humor and personality brought friends and family together wherever she went.

Her joy and love are forever cherished by her daughters, Billie (Ralyn) Tennant of Grand Island, Cindy (Les) Green of Ewing and Debbie Cornish of St. Paul; grandchildren, Eli, Jenny, Jared, Jacob and Emma; five great-grandchildren; step-brothers, George Fairbanks and Ray Fairbanks; dear four-legged companion, Millie; along with numerous nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

She was preceded in death by her parents; husband, Max; brother, Billy Weber; sisters, Phyllis Christensen, Susie Cassidy and Nedra Norton.

Memorials are suggested to the family to be designated at later date.
