“ I lived with Deb and Don, Niki and Kelli for a year between high school and college. They accepted me into their family and taught me a new way of life. Deb was like a sister to me. Once she asked me to cook spaghetti. I had never cooked spaghetti. I didn't know the water had to be boiling before adding the spaghetti. I put it in the cold water and ruined it! She was so patient! She laughed and laughed, and then taught me the correct way to cook it. But she never let me forget it! We laughed about it often over the years! There are so many other memories I have....WONDERFUL memories! I thank God every day for placing me into their family. I try to honor their influence in my life by making as big a difference in other's lives as they made in mine. Love you Niki, Kelli, and all the rest of the family..... ❤️ Love ya Sis..... See ya later.....
