

Deborah M Rock

September 19, 1959 - August 11, 2016

Deborah M. Rock, 56 of Grand Island passed away on August 11, 2016 at her home in Grand Island.

Cremation has been chosen, Celebration of Life Services will be held at 10:30 a.m. on Thursday at All Faiths Funeral Home. Fr. Marty Egging will officiate. Burial of ashes will follow at Westlawn Memorial Park Cemetery.

Debbie was born on September 19, 1959 in Grand Island, daughter of Donald and Margie (Kaumans) Rock.

She is survived by her parents; brother, Thomas Rock of Grand Island; sisters, Theresa (Steve) McCarthy, Annette Reinhardt and Mary (Jeff) Czaplewski all of Grand Island; longtime friend, Sandy Dobesh; numerous nieces, nephews and extended family and friends.

Debbie was preceded in death by her twin brother and sister, Matthew and Michelle Rock; paternal and maternal grandparents; Uncle, Bob Kaumans; Aunt Dorothy Halpin; along with special four legged friend, Tessa.

Debbie was raised and received her education in Grand Island and graduated at midterm from Grand Island High School in 1977.

As a lifelong artist, Deb would paint murals for preschools, and churches while living in Hastings. She was always learning and taking college art classes.

Deb enjoyed drawing parrots, butterflies and most other animals. Deb adored animals and her yorkie, Tessa held a special place in her heart. Deb was very independent and was proud to be of help to her parents during their recent health concerns. Her faith helped her through many troubles and handwritten verses were always nearby. She enjoyed playing dominos and spending time with family.

Memorials are suggested to the Central Nebraska Humane Society.

“ I will always remember Deb as she was at fifteen, dancing to Dan Fogelberg and working on a batik wall hanging. She was one of the best friends I have ever had.
