“ We first met Delores by "chance" at Pumpers, along with the rest of the 9am coffee crew, about 18 years ago. She was such a beautiful lady, inside and out. She fiercely loved Marion and her family and always spoke kindly of all of them. It was hard to watch her health decline and was especially difficult to see the chair she filled faithfully at coffee become vacant. She and Marion became like family through the years and they celebrated many family milestones with us. We will forever cherish the memories of Delores and are certain she is now resting with her Lord and Savior Jesus. May God gently comfort her family as they mourn her passing.
