Derrek J. Cocchiarella, 23, of Grand Island passed away at his home on June 26, 2021.

Memorials are suggested to the family to be designated later to benefit NA. All Faiths Funeral Home is entrusted with arrangements.

Derrek was born on January 15, 1998 in Grand Island. He grew up around central Nebraska and attended Hastings High School. He gained most of his knowledge through life experiences instead of sitting in a classroom.

Derrek's laugh could be picked out of a crowd. He loved cars and if he had his way, he would have set up the audio for everyone to hear it a mile away.

Derrek was a skilled skateboarder and had a few broken bones to prove it.

Derrek loved guns and was a surprisingly good shot. He had several intricate tattoos thanks to his brother's interest in becoming a tattoo artist. Derrek was the life of the party and loved food. His off the wall humor and love for his friends and family will forever be missed.

He is survived by his mother, Linette Cocchiarella of Grand Island; father, Anthony Cocchiarella; siblings, Lindsey (Justice Whitten) Lyons of Hastings, twin brother, Dustin of Grand Island, Ashley Cocchiarella of Grand Island, Tyler Vogt of Grand Island; JT Vogt of Grand Island; step-siblings, Tyler

Glover of Harlowtown, MT, Rhiannon Maughan of Hastings, Paige Maughan of Hastings, and youngest brother, Caleb Maughan of Hastings; along with numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews and friends that became family.

Derrek was preceded in death by his grandparents, and dog, Zena
