All Faiths Funeral Home is serving the family.

Dee was born on August 26, 1942 in Omaha to Everett and Delores (Brisbane) Matthews.

To cherish Dee's memory include her children, Tina (Joe) Garcia of Grand Island; Stephen (Katie) Schutter of Doniphan; James (Charlee) Schutter of Grand Island; Amanda Schutter of Grand Island; brother, Everett "Butch" Matthews; 18 grand children; 11 great-grandchildren, and a host of extended family and friends.

She is preceded in death by her mother, Delores and sister, Diane Goebel.

Dee was raised in Omaha until her teens when the family moved to California where she graduated from Hawthorne Catholic High School. She was united in marriage to Stephen Robert Schutter Sr. in 1965. The couple made their home in California where they raised their family. Dee was employed at an aircraft manufacturing company for many years. While living in California, Dee would spend weekends at the lake or the local amusement parks with her kids. Recently she returned to Nebraska to be near to family.

Dee adored horses and was a very gifted seamstress, making all of her children's clothes and doll clothes. Above all else she loved and supported her family.
