“ We are so sorry for your loss. Don and Jean lived in a twin home just a couple of doors from us. My husband and Don used to play cards together at Good Samaritan. He was missed when he moved to California. Don used to head out for cards in his power chair and my husband would be right behind him on his scooter. You girls were so good to your parents. May God bless you all.

*Girls, your dad and my parents were neighbors, when I attended district 18 school. I attended kindergarten through 2nd grade. Anyway, I remember waving at your dad, whenever I would pass your farm. I never got to know him, on a personal level, but I have fond memories of him then and even later, as I got older.
My sincere condolences, for your loss.*
