“ Donna was the kind, patient person who taught me the details of submitting student registrations from the Holdrege Center. I made so many mistakes, and she was never rude, never judgmental, always kind and willing to explain all the different details of what I was supposed to be doing. We became friends over the distance and were able to have lunch together just once when I was passing through GI. We lost touch after her retirement and I am so saddened to learn of her death. She was a beautiful human, inside and out, and I am sending up prayers for comfort and virtual hugs to all who love her.
