September 28, 1956 - May 7, 2025

On May 7th, 2025, Donna Mae "McCarville" Wieczorek of Laguna Vista, Texas passed away at the age of 68.

Donna was born in Central City, NE on September 28, 1956 to Donald and Phyllis "Krakowski" McCarville. Living most of her childhood in Silver Creek, Nebraska alongside her sisters, Bonnie & Kay, she began her life full of adventure. Donna was involved in many activities, whilst excelling academically, graduating valedictorian from Silver Creek High School in 1974.

Donna married her husband, Joseph E. Wieczorek Jr. on September 28th, 1979 and their son, Joseph III, was born in 1980. They remained living in Nebraska until relocating to Lubbock, TX in 1997. Donna started from the bottom and grew her career as a banker until retiring in 2015.

During their 45 years of marriage, Donna and Joe developed a love for traveling, visiting 27 countries on 6 continents. In their retirement Donna and Joe packed it up and moved to Panama for 4 years. They later moved to New Orleans, LA; Tucson, AR; Pueblo, CO; Ojai, CA and ended up in Laguna Vista, TX.

When Donna wasn't riding a camel in Egypt or visiting the Vatican in Italy, she also found pleasure in simple things like keeping a pristine home and playing cards. There wasn't a single trip back to Nebraska visiting family that didn't include at least a few rounds of Pitch. She loved being there to cheer on her Chiefs. She & Joe could often be found doing the Texas Two Step around any dance floor.

She is survived by her loving husband of 45 years, Joseph Wieczorek Jr. of Laguna Vista, TX; son, Joseph Wieczorek III; grandsons, Caleb & Josh Wieczorek; mother, Phyllis McCarville of Columbus, NE; sisters, Bonita (Jack) Tindall of Osceola, NE and Kay (David) Tschantre of Columbus, NE and many nieces & nephews.

“ Years ago in Central City, Phyllis and Don and their daughters Bonnie and Donna Mae lived across the street from my family. Don drove a bread truck and Donna Mae's nickname was "Tiny." I have many memories of the McCarville family but lost track of the family when they moved to Silver Creek. Please accept my sincere sympathy to the family.
