“ I am so sorry to hear of your loss. The death of a loved one, is one of the most devastating experience a human can face. At times, the loss can seem unbearable. The bible promise: "God is close to the brokenhearted". It also says: "Throw your burden on God and he will sustain you" (Psalms 34:18 and 55:22). I hope these facts, will help you cope with the loss of your loved one and strength you and your family, in your days ahead.

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you...We could not have asked for a better neighbor than your mother, grandmother and great grandmother...Donna was such a kind and loving person the memories of sitting on the deck with a glass of tea and just visiting for hours will never be forgotten. Her keeping an extra key to our house so when the boys were young and would forget their key to get into our house...every time we look out the window I think of Donna...we know she is at peace and back with Bernie once again but still hard to let go of someone we love so dearly.

Brad & Donna, Jr. So sorry to hear about Donna, she was so pleasant to be around. Ann will miss the time they were able to visit here in Wisconsin & Nebraska. Brad, you and Donna took such good care of your mother, especially in the last few years, Was so great we were able to meet up so Donna & Ann could spend some time together while they were able. Thoughts and prayers are with you all, in this time of sorrow.

Mike, Read about your mom in the Independent on line. Use to see her when we were visiting my dad. We are now living in Idaho. Dad died in April of last year. Nothing stays the same. It's been a long time Mike.
