“ She was a special lady, I liked working with her at Ace and she was so proud of all of her children. Such a sweet soul will be very much missed. Gary, Lydia and Andrea you had a great mom and she will live on through you.

“ *We became friends at the Ace garden center. She always called us by name and always had a smile! One christmas I wanted sunflower seeds to send to my AZ grand kids so they could plant them early, and she went up in the attic and brought me down several different packages. She didn't have to do that, but she went the extra mile and I wrote her supervisor about her good deed. I can only imagine how her grandchildren will miss her.

“ So sorry for your loss. Dora was a wonderful lady, I always enjoyed stopping and talking to her at Ace about the kids, seems like only yesterday Lydia and Brandi were playing in the back yard. Your mother will be missed by many.

“ Working with Dora was always a pleasure. She was an upbeat sweet lady. I miss her helping me with my displays or letting me bounce ideas to her about what I wanted to do. God bless you and I miss you.

“ I will always treasure Dora's kindness when I shopped at Ace Hardware. She expressed her kindness through her smile and attentiveness to the customers.

Dora, you have fought the good fight and finished the race and kept the faith. Now go and enjoy that crown of righteousness which our Lord has promised. (2nd Timothy)
