Dorothy was born on June 23, 1930 in Texarkana, Arkansas the daughter of James and Ruby (Knod) Haile. She was raised in Grand Island, graduating from GISH class of 1948. On June 17, 1948, Dorothy was united in marriage to Darrell Enck. This union was blessed with children, Thomas, Tim, Terry, Tracy, Tedd, and Todd.

Dorothy and her husband were charter stock holding members for Hall County Livestock Improvement/Fonner Park. They sold racing forms and programs from the beginning of Fonner for many years until they sold their business in 1982. Dorothy thoroughly enjoyed going with her husband and selling at the track during racing season, which was a very important part of her life. Raising six children, she became a talented seamstress and an avid reader. She was a member of Daughters of the Nile. Dorothy enjoyed playing video poker on her many trips to the casino, including during the last weeks of her life.

Dorothy's greatest joy was her family and spending time together at their home on Johnson Lake.

She is preceded in death by her husband, Darrell who died July 21, 2000; her parents; granddaughter, Morgan Enck and her siblings, James Haile, Joni Haile and Jack Haile.

“ I'm so happy to met Dorothy in my younger years when I lived with my great and loveley hostparents Tracy and Scott. Last time I met Dorothy in 2018 and I still remember her sitting outside at the lake, in a chair, having a very relaxed position, reading a book and looking endless satisfied. I think spending family time was on of her greatest passion. Our thoughts are with you in these days. Thank's for making it possible to participate from far away. Much love to all of you from Germany. Meike & family and my parents Holger & Silvia

“ Unfortunately?, I never had a chance to meet Dorothy. Having worked with Tedd for many years, I. Heard many wonderful stories of her adventures in life. Tedd joked that her life was so busy that he almost felt he needed to schedule an appointment to visit. Bless her for a life well lived and for the family she leaves on earth.ay she rest in the arms of Jesus.
