“ I was so sad to read that my friend and client, Dorothy, had lost her battle which she fought with such stoicism. She always handled adversity well, leaning on one or the other of her treasured Grandchildren, and stating “Nature, give what it pleases you to give, and take what it pleases you to take”, always taking the good with the bad. Her positive outlook amid her many losses was a true inspiration to me. I will miss her friendship and the joy she spread. God bless and keep her; may she rest in His waiting arms.

My sincere condolences to all of you Grandchildren whom she loved so well. May peace and wisdom be your journeymates through this time of goodbyes.
