Dorothy was born June 10, 1931, on the family farm near Ainsworth, NE, the daughter of Jens and Emma (Petersen) Jorgensen. She graduated from Chambers High School and earned her teaching certificate from Wayne State College. Dorothy went on to teach at a rural one-room schoolhouse. She often told stories of riding her horse to and from school.

On April 23, 1954, Dorothy was united in marriage to Bernard L. Stauffer. They lived in Columbus, North Platte, Mitchell, SD, and Lincoln while raising their six children. Dorothy was a full-time mother and homemaker. In the early nineties she became the Executive Director of the Lincoln Crisis Pregnancy Center. Following her move to Grand Island in 2011, Dorothy became a foster grandparent at Dodge and Westlawn Schools. She loved being a foster grandparent and had plans to continue right up to the time of her passing. She enjoyed her community at GI Free Church in Grand Island.

Dorothy is survived by her children, Linda (Randy) Gustafson of Lincoln, Peggy (Rick) Marker of Grand Island, Julia (Darren) West of Gering, Sherry Miller (Tim Oehlerking) of Lincoln, John (Kris) Stauffer of Boston, MA, and Kathy (Jeff) Spanski of Golden, CO; 15 grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren; and a sister, Margaret Heithold of Missouri.

Dorothy was preceded in death by her husband, Bernard, in 1986; her parents; sister Caroline (Alvin) Engdahl; brother, Dwight (Sandy) Jorgensen; great-grandchildren, Rakeem and Kyah Loree Miller; and brother-in-law, Don Heithold.

Memorials are suggested to the AmeriCorps Foster Grandparent Program or the GI Free Church.

“ Dorothy and Bernie were friends with my parents, Gib and Ethel Bowman. Peg and I got to know each other and develop a sweet friendship that has lasted through the years. Dorothy was a no nonsense person that loved the Lord. She raised great kids and was proud of them all. I can't think of a greater accomplishment. Well done!

So glad I got to spend time with her when I visited Peggy in GI.
